MiFID II Commodity Derivative Position Limits and Reporting

With effect from 3rd January 2018, commodity derivatives traded on a European Economic Area (“EEA”) trading venue and economically equivalent over the counter (“EEOTC”) contracts will become subject to position limits. For the purposes of complying with our reporting obligations, if you intend to trade commodity derivatives on a EEA trading venue or EEOTC contracts, we require additional information from you.

Please circle the answer that applies and provide the relevant information:

(a) Our ultimate parent is a legal entity and its LEI is:

(b) Our ultimate parent (please state the name of the ultimate parent : _____) is a legal entity but does not yet have an LEI. It will obtain one itself and supply this to Sucden Financial. We understand that we may not be able to trade on EEA markets after this date if our ultimate parent has not obtained an LEI.

(c) Our ultimate parent (please state the name of the ultimate parent : _____) is a legal entity but it does not yet have an LEI. It would like Sucden Financial to obtain an LEI on its behalf. Accordingly, an authorised person at our ultimate parent will email compliance@sucfin.com to request the LEI. By submitting this request, our ultimate parent please state the name of the ultimate parent : _____) confirms that it has read the terms and conditions applicable to Sucden Financial’s LEI request service (available at: <https://www.sucdenfinancial.com/en/about/client-documentation>) and understands that it will be charged GBP£115 + value added tax (or the USD$ equivalent) for using this service.

Important note(s)

- An LEI is an alphanumeric code which is 20 characters long, and is issued by a LOU in return for a fee. For the avoidance of doubt, it is not a company registration number or the equivalent. For further information on what an LEI is and why we require it, please consult the Frequently Asked Questions document on our website.
- Please note that, from January 2018, it will be mandatory for every legal entity that trades with an EU investment firm, such as Sucden Financial Limited, to have an LEI. Entities that do not have an LEI will not be able to trade with an EU investment firm
- LEIs are issued by Sucden Financial Limited’s LOU and not by Sucden Financial Limited itself. Sucden Financial Limited cannot be held liable for any delays in the LOU issuing an LEI. Applications made by Sucden Financial Limited to obtain an LEI may be delayed if inaccurate or incomplete information has been supplied.
- A fee of GBP£115 (plus VAT) will be levied by Sucden Financial Limited for the service of obtaining an LEI.
- Sucden Financial Limited does not have the responsibility or obligation for ensuring that an LEI obtained on a third-party’s behalf is accurate, properly maintained, kept up to date and annually renewed.
- An LEI will only be renewed by Sucden Financial Limited upon receipt of express written instructions.
- If your ultimate parent is a legal entity, this will be its LEI
- If your ultimate parent is an(are) EEA individual(s), please provide their relevant identification number as listed in this document: <https://www.sucdenfinancial.com/en/about/client-documentation>
- If your ultimate parent is an/are individual(s) who is(are) not a citizen of an EEA state, this will be the passport number as stated in their latest passport(s)
- We recommend that your parent uses a special email address for us to use in our commodity position reports so that it doesn’t have to keep updating it in the event of personnel changes.
- For information on the requirement to obtain an LEI, please refer to the Frequently Asked Questions document on our website: www.sucdenfinancial.com/ClientDocumentation.

17 Consents required under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive

Under the FCA Rules that implement the European Markets in Financial Instruments Directive ("MiFID"), we need to obtain your express consent or instructions in order to do certain things that will, in our view, enable us to provide a more comprehensive service to you.

Specifically:

- we need your written consent to execute your orders outside a regulated market; and
- if you wish us to have the flexibility not to make details of your unexecuted limit orders to buy or sell European listed shares immediately public in the event that we are unable to execute them under prevailing market conditions, then you need to give us a specific instruction to this effect.

We give consent for Sucden Financial Limited to execute orders on our behalf outside a regulated market.

Yes No

Please note that we are not required to obtain this consent in the event that you are categorised as an eligible counterparty in accordance with the FCA's rules.

Where we have given you a limit order relating to shares that have been admitted to trading on a regulated market and Sucden Financial Limited is unable to execute the order immediately under prevailing market conditions, we do not require Sucden Financial Limited to make the requisite details of that order immediately public but instead permit Sucden Financial Limited (or, as the case may be, the intermediate broker through whom Sucden Financial Limited has chosen to execute the order) to exercise discretion as to whether or not the requisite details of the order are made public.

Yes No

For more information on what constitutes a "regulated market" for the purposes of this section, please consult the Glossary at the following section of the FCA's website: <https://www.handbook.fca.org.uk/handbook//>

The following officers, being duly authorised to do so, declare and confirm on behalf of the Company the following:

- We certify that we are authorised to sign for the Company in respect of all the accounts to which this form relates and have informed the directors, officers, partners, shareholders, signatories or other relevant parties about the proposed relationship. We confirm that these persons have given you permission to disclose their information to Sucden Financial Limited; and for Sucden Financial Limited to use and record that information;
- the Company confirms that all statements made in this declaration are correct and complete;
- the Company undertakes to advise Sucden Financial Limited immediately of any change in circumstance which causes the information herein to become incorrect (including any changes to the information on controlling persons);
- Before providing us with any information relating to identifiable living individuals in connection with this Account Opening Form you confirm that you have read and understand the Data Protection and Privacy Policy available on Sucden Financial Limited’s website at: <https://www.sucdenfinancial.com/en/op/data-protection-and-privacy-policy>, and confirm that you have provided those individuals (except where they already have the information) with the Data Protection and Privacy Policy. We give consent for Sucden Financial Limited to hold our personal data longer than 5 years;
- the Company acknowledges that the information contained in this form and information regarding the Account Holder and any Reportable Account(s) may be reported to the tax authorities of the country in which this account(s) is/are maintained and exchanged with tax authorities of another country or countries in which the Account Holder may be tax resident pursuant to intergovernmental agreements to exchange financial account information with the country/ies in which this account(s) is/are maintained;
- where applicable, the Company confirms that it has read and understood the Clearing Member Disclosure Document and confirms its clearing account preferences made in this form; and
- the Company agrees to be bound by any provisions included in this form.
