11 Representations in relation to trading derivative products

For information on why we require this information, what each of the categories above mean, and what the implications are of falling within one of these categories, please refer to the Frequently Asked Questions document on our website: www.sucdenfinancial.com/ClientDocumentation.

We are a Financial Counterparty ("FC+")	<input type="checkbox"/>
We are a Small Financial Counterparty ("FC-")	<input type="checkbox"/>
We are a Non-Financial Counterparty that is above the Clearing Threshold ("NFC+")	<input type="checkbox"/>
We are a Non-Financial Counterparty that is below the Clearing Threshold ("NFC-")	<input type="checkbox"/>

Important - change of status

If you become a client and you subsequently become aware of any change to your classification, you undertake to notify Sucden in writing of such change as soon as reasonably practicable.

If you have selected NFC+ or NFC-, please select the one box below that describes the reason you trade commodity derivatives:

(i) positions held are objectively measurable as reducing risks directly relating to the commercial activity of the company (i.e., for hedging purposes only)	<input type="checkbox"/>
(ii) positions held are for speculative purposes only:	<input type="checkbox"/>
(iii) positions held may be for a combination of hedging and speculative purposes:	<input type="checkbox"/>

† Only non-financial entities (NFE's) are able to trade commodity derivatives for (i) hedging purposes only; or (iii) a combination of hedging and speculative purposes. If you have selected option (iii), your order will be defaulted to 'hedging purposes' and the obligation is on you to identify an order that is being placed for 'speculative' purposes by either (a) notifying your broker; or (b) setting the speculative field on your trading system.

12 Delegated Trade Reporting (entities incorporated/established in the UK and EEA ONLY)

For further information on what delegated trade reporting is, and why we are asking this question, please consult the Frequently Asked Questions document on our website: www.sucdenfinancial.com/ClientDocumentation.

We would be interested in delegating our trade reporting to Sucden, for trades entered into with Sucden (please tick the box that applies):

Yes

No

Important note

An entity must supply its LEI (see box 13, below) and VAT number to us if it is interested in receiving delegated trade reporting services from us.

Please provide your VAT number here: _____

13 Legal Entity Identifier (“LEI”) (all entities, regardless of jurisdiction of incorporation/establishment)

We require an LEI from you (and from any entity(ies) that has discretionary or other authority to trade on your behalf (for example fund manager(s), entity(ies) acting under a power of attorney or any other mandate(s)) before you open an account with us.

Please tick the box that applies below:

We have an LEI or have applied for one

Please provide your LEI or pre-LEI below:

We do not have an LEI but we will independently apply for an LEI and confirm it to Sucden Financial Limited

MiFID II Commodity Derivative Position Limits and Reporting

With effect from 3rd January 2018, commodity derivatives traded on a European Economic Area (“EEA”) trading venue and economically equivalent over the counter (“EEOTC”) contracts will become subject to position limits. For the purposes of complying with our reporting obligations, if you intend to trade commodity derivatives on a EEA trading venue or EEOTC contracts, we require additional information from you.

Do you have an ultimate parent company? Yes No

The LEI Regulatory Oversight Committee retains the definition of ultimate parent envisaged in the public consultation: the “ultimate accounting consolidating parent” of entity X would be the highest level legal entity preparing consolidated financial statements that consolidate entity X, based on the accounting definition of consolidation applying to this parent.” If consolidated financial statements are not produced select No.

If yes, please provide your ultimate parent LEI: _____

Important note(s)

- An LEI is an alphanumeric code which is 20 characters long, and is issued by a LOU in return for a fee. For the avoidance of doubt, it is not a company registration number or the equivalent. For further information on what an LEI is and why we require it, please consult the Frequently Asked Questions document on our website.
- Please note that, from January 2018, it will be mandatory for every legal entity that trades with an EU investment firm, such as Sucden Financial Limited, to have an LEI. Entities that do not have an LEI will not be able to trade with an EU investment firm
- If your ultimate parent is a legal entity, this will be its LEI
- For information on the requirement to obtain an LEI, please refer to the Frequently Asked Questions document on our website: www.sucdenfinancial.com/ClientDocumentation.

14 Conflicts of interest

In order to meet our regulatory obligations to identify and manage any conflicts of interest please confirm whether, to your knowledge, you have any existing affiliation or relationship with any Sucden Financial Limited group company, SFL employee or SFL client?

Yes No

If yes please provide more information:

15 Purpose of trading derivative products

Please provide a brief explanation of the trading activity we can expect to see from your account(s) including products, volumes and maturities as well as the trading platforms and e-platforms that you intend to use.

16 Clearing Account Preferences (relevant to prospective clients intending to engage in cleared business only)

If applicable, please confirm your choice of clearing account structure for each business area in which you intend to trade derivatives with Sucden by ticking the applicable box(es) below.

Please note:

- you can only make one election (i.e., Individually Segregated Account (“ISA”) or Omnibus Segregated Account (“OSA”) per business area.
- you should read the Clearing Member Disclosure Document and Pricing Disclosures for Clearing Account Structures carefully before making your choice. Both documents are available at the following location under “EMIR Documentation”: www.sucdenfinancial.com/ClientDocumentation
- you should also read the Frequently Asked Questions document in relation to this section. This document is also available at the abovementioned location; and
- if you do not intend to trade derivatives falling under any of the business areas listed below then you do not need to complete this section.

Business Area	ISA required	Net OSA required
London Metal Exchange (“LME”)
Freight Derivatives
ICE Futures Europe business cleared through ICE Clear Europe

Are you a broker operating an omnibus account for underlying customers on the following markets:

ICE Futures US No Yes

CME No Yes

An omnibus account is defined as “An account of one Futures Commission Merchant (FCM), the originating FCM, which resides on the books of another FCM (the carrying FCM), in which the transactions of two or more persons are combined and carried in the name of the originating FCM rather than in the name of the individual customers.” An account which is a discretionary fund would not be considered an omnibus account.

If you have answered Yes, you should be aware of your large trader reporting obligations. We will contact you to obtain an omnibus reporting agreement.

17 Access to the Company's account via Sudden's website

Does the Company wish to access details of its account activity on Sudden's website? Yes No

18 Consents required under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive

Under the FCA Rules that implement the European Markets in Financial Instruments Directive ("MiFID"), we need to obtain your express consent or instructions in order to do certain things that will, in our view, enable us to provide a more comprehensive service to you.

Specifically:

- we need your written consent to execute your orders outside a regulated market; and
- if you wish us to have the flexibility not to make details of your unexecuted limit orders to buy or sell European listed shares immediately public in the event that we are unable to execute them under prevailing market conditions, then you need to give us a specific instruction to this effect.

We give consent for Sudden Financial Limited to execute orders on our behalf outside a regulated market. Please note that we are not required to obtain this consent in the event that you are categorised as an eligible counterparty in accordance with the FCA's rules.	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>
Where we have given you a limit order relating to shares that have been admitted to trading on a regulated market and Sudden Financial Limited is unable to execute the order immediately under prevailing market conditions, we do not require Sudden Financial Limited to make the requisite details of that order immediately public but instead permit Sudden Financial Limited (or, as the case may be, the intermediate broker through whom Sudden Financial Limited has chosen to execute the order) to exercise discretion as to whether or not the requisite details of the order are made public.	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>

For more information on what constitutes a "regulated market" for the purposes of this section, please consult the Glossary at the following section of the FCA's website: <https://www.handbook.fca.org.uk/handbook/>

19 Reverse solicitation: Applicable to European Economic Area ("EEA") and Switzerland based clients only

We can confirm that the initial contact and communication in respect of the initiation of investment services or activity came exclusively from the Company without any undue influence, direction, or collaboration of Sudden Financial Limited.
