

Important Disclosure in relation to Investment Recommendations

The Market Abuse Regulation (Regulation (EU) No 596/2014) (“MAR”) requires that persons who produce or disseminate investment recommendations or other information recommending or suggesting an investment strategy shall take reasonable care to ensure that such information is objectively presented, and to disclose their interests or indicate conflicts of interest concerning the financial instruments to which that information relates.

All investment recommendations produced by Sucden Financial Limited (SFL) should be regarded as marketing communications as they are based on non-independent research. They are not intended to be investment research and have not been prepared in accordance with legal requirements to promote the independence of investment research, nor are they subject to any prohibition on dealing ahead of the dissemination of investment research. Any view expressed in the recommendations may represent the current views and interpretations of the markets, products or events of such individuals and may be different from other personnel – the views in the recommendations may be more short term in nature and liable to change more quickly. The recommendations are for distribution to eligible counterparties and professional clients only and are not intended for retail customer use. SFL does not provide investment services to retail customers.

The investment recommendations provided are solely for informational purposes and should not be regarded as a recommendation to buy, sell or otherwise deal in any particular investment. You should make your own independent evaluation of the relevance and adequacy of any investment recommendation and seek independent professional advice to determine whether a particular recommendation is suitable for you

A recommendation is not directed toward, nor does it constitute an offer or solicitation to, anyone in any jurisdiction or country where such distribution or use would be contrary to local law or regulation.

Sucden Financial Limited

Sucden Financial Limited is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (“FCA”).

Previous different recommendations

All investment recommendations are based on the author's opinion of the market conditions as at the date and time of publication. Please be aware that, where any views have been expressed, the author of the report may have had many, varied views over the past 12 months, including contrary views. A large number of views are being generated at all times and these may change quickly. Any valuations or underlying assumptions made are solely based upon the author's market knowledge and experience. Please contact the author should you require a copy of any previous reports for comparative purposes.

Previous recommendations during preceding 12 month period

A list of historical investment recommendations that are marketing communications, produced within the preceding twelve month period, is available upon request free of charge. Please contact Compliance@sucfin.com if you would like a copy of this information.

Projections, forecasts and price targets

Any projects, forecasts and price targets made in the recommendation have been identified as such in the recommendation and any material assumptions that have been either used or made in producing the projection, forecast or price target in question are set out in the recommendation.

Source of information in recommendation

The information contained in the recommendation may be based on or contain information, such as opinions, recommendations, estimates, price targets and valuations which emanate from publicly available information, information from SFL's access to financial markets or external market data vendors or other named sources.

Conflict of interest

Sucden Financial may have an interest in financial instruments of, or related to, the type referred to in an investment recommendation giving rise to potential Such conflicts of interest may include, but are not limited to, (i) dealing or holding the same financial instruments on behalf of a different client; (ii) maximising trading volumes in order to increase commission revenue, which opposes a client's objective to minimise transaction costs; and (iii) having a proprietary interest that is contrary to a trade idea or research report that is transmitted to a client. These conflicts are managed in accordance with the Sucden Financial Conflicts of Interest Policy which can be accessed here.

Remuneration

Authors and employees responsible for the provision of the recommendation may be paid in part by reference to the profitability of SFL. Remuneration of employees is not dependent on individual transactions effected by SFL.
